

CLE Presented by the Attorney General's Office

Your Practical Guide to Getting (Just About) Anything Admitted at Trial

Thursday, May 30, 2013, 9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
15 S. 15th Ave., Basement Conference Room

Also available in the Tucson office via video conference*

This CLE is limited to Attorney General Office or State Government Employees

May qualify for up to 2.0 hours of CLE Credit

Why You Should Attend

This course provides an overview of key prerequisites to the admission of everything from opinion testimony to video reenactments, with special emphasis on meeting the standards for authentication, establishing foundation, and overcoming common objections. Step-by-step instruction in gaining admission of certain common types of physical evidence (such as photographs, audio recordings, public records and business records, and objects like weapons or defective products) will be provided. Attendees will gain both skills and confidence in admission of evidence at trial.
